

421 Fifth Avenue,
Brooklyn, NY 11215

Brooklyn Arts Exchange
arts and artists in progress

BAX TEEN ARTS CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

FRIDAY, MARCH 12, 2010

FREE WORKSHOP FOR TEACHING ARTISTS

6:00 – 9:00 p.m.

TBA

SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 2010

FREE WORKSHOPS FOR TEENS

10:00am-4:00pm

WORKSHOPS MAY INCLUDE: IMPROVISATION, ACTING, YOGA, MODERN DANCE, PHYSICAL COMEDY, HIP-HOP, AFRICAN DANCE AND MORE!! All workshops will take place at the BAX Building and are led by teachers and artists active in the performing arts field. More information on the workshops will arrive upon your acceptance to perform as part of the 2010 Teen Arts Conference.

Check-in begins at 9:30am. Lunch will be provided. If your performance group is chosen to perform, your group will also be scheduled for a 20-25 minute technical rehearsal during the conference for the evening's performance. If you would like to teach a workshop, please indicate so on the enclosed application.

OPPORTUNITIES IN THE DANCE AND THEATER FIELDS PANEL DISCUSSIONS

12:45 – 1:45 p.m.

Meet professional working artists, arts administrators, lighting designers and technical directors. Learn about what opportunities are possible for young emerging artists. Watch a short performance of a professional work-in-progress and give feedback. A Q & A follows discussions and presentations.

TEEN PERFORMANCE GALA

7:30 p.m.

Open to the public for a suggested contribution of $5.00 per person.

NOTE: The success of the conference depends on full participation of each student in all aspects of the conference. It is much more than a performance opportunity. It is an opportunity to experience something different, to make new friends and contacts, and to learn from a variety of professionals in the performing arts field. For non-performing groups, registration begins in February.